

“Meaning and role of social competence in higher education – voices from research and practice”

1st DASCHE conference in Bremen, June 13th 2019

House of Science, Olbers Saal and Kleiner Saal, Sandstraße 4/5, 28195 Bremen

Please note: all conference issues take place in the Olbers hall (Olbers Saal), if no other room is named explicitly.

09:30	Registration and Coffee in the Foyer, 1st floor
10:00	Welcoming speech (Dr. Ida Kristina Kühn, Institute Technology and Education, University of Bremen)
	Social Competence(s) at the interface of higher education and society
10:30	Keynote: The Role of Higher Education for Shaping Future Citizens and Society. (Dr. Christof Nägele, University of Applied Sciences Northwestern Switzerland, Switzerland)
11:15	Socio-emotional skills for innovation: exploring the concept in the context of university innovation education (Andrea Detmer, University College London, United Kingdom)
11:45	How can social competences be fostered in higher education by service learning? A good practice example (Dr. Cornelia Arend-Steinebach, University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany)
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Information parcours: open space discussions in the main hall.
	Parallel Sessions  Session 3 Olbers Saal   Session 4 Kleiner Saal
14:30 - 15:45	Social Competence(s) in Higher Education Teaching and Learning
14:30	The Link between Critical Thinking and Participation of Students in Projects (Yuliya Koreshnikova & Isak Froumin, NRU Higher School of Economics Moscow, Russia)	Simulation/role-play as testing tool and for grading social competence (M.A. Kathy Meyer-Ross, University of Applied Sciences for Technology and Economics Dresden, Germany)
15:15	How much social competence does the reflective-practitioner need? – Motivating teacher students to perceive pupils’ and parents’ perspective (Prof. Dr. Anne Levin & Dr. Katja Meyer-Siever, University of Bremen, Germany)	Developing social competences with drama education (Dr. Edina Kovács, Perspectiva Nova Association & Centrum for Higher Education Research and Development, Debrecen, Hungary)
15:45	Pick a coffee and a snack
16:00	The hosts take the floor: Social competence(s) in higher education of six European countries. Findings and outlook. (Prof. Ewa Chmielecka, Warsaw School of Economics/Poland - Dr. Ida Kristina Kühn, ITB, University of Bremen/Germany - Gunta Kinta, Academic Information Centre, Riga/Latvia - Dr. Jan Beseda, Centre for Higher Education Studies, Prague/Czech Republic - Dr. Julie Rattray and Dr. Rille Raaper, University of Durham/United Kingdom)
17:15	Panel Discussion: Which role do social competence(s) play in modern society? How important or desirable is the assessment of social competences in higher education? What can higher education institutions do to develop social competences for its actors? (Moderation by Katrina Koppel (Vice-President of the European Students' Union with Prof. Dr. h.c. Michael Gessler, Institute Technology and Education, University of Bremen and four further guests)
17:45	Conclusion: Summary of the conference and announcement of 2nd International Conference in Warsaw
18:00	End of the conference	